ROUTE & ITINERARY

DAY 1: ARRIVAL

Your day starts mid morning at Johannesburg Airport where you board your plane for the flight to Hoedspruit airport. Look out for your name as you are welcomed off your flight. It is a short drive to the unique Hoyo Hoyo Tsonga Lodge situated in the heart of the Kruger National Park. You can also transfer from Johannesburg to Hoyo Hoyo by road. This trip leaves Johannesburg at 8.00 am and arrives in the early afternoon at Hoyo Hoyo Tsonga Lodge where you will settle in to your beautiful surroundings.

DAY 2: PLAINS CAMP

This morning you can take part in a walking safari which offers you use of the unspoiled Bushveld. Learn more about this beautiful area, and its diverse and fascinating inhabitants. It is not only the wildlife that is interesting, but also their habitat. Have a coffee or tea in the bush before satisfying your appetite at a breakfast feast back at the Camp. After breakfast your guide will pick you up at Rhino Post in an open safari vehicle and drive you to Plain's Camp.

Built in true pioneer tradition Plain's Camp reflects the ambience of a 19th Century naturalist's rest. Offering four African explorer-style tents which are set in an Acacia Knobthorn thicket, the camp overlooks the spectacular Timbitene plain, abundant in game best viewed from the revitalizing plunge pool. An Africana book collection and treasures from another era weave the spell of days gone by.

Guests staying at Plains Camp can explore the 12 000 hectare luxury private wilderness area in the Kruger National Park. This is the only wilderness area in the Kruger Park to be given to a private operator. Sharing a common boundary with famous Mala Mala Game Reserve for 14km allows for sightings of an abundance of game. The area is only 20 minutes from Skukuza, the heart of the Kruger National Park.

This evening you will spend around the campfire. There is a spotlight on the wooden deck which you can use to check which animals are drinking at the waterhole at night on the plains stretching out in front of you across the flickering fire.

DAY 3: PLAINS CAMP

Feel the African soil under your feet and let your senses come alive as you set out on an early morning game walk to discover the mysteries of the bush. Let your professional guide teach you how to identify animals from their spoor and which plants have medicinal qualities. You will be amazed at what the Shangaan people use elephant dung for...Satisfy the appetite you worked up during your game walk with a scrumptious brunch. The rest of the day is yours to relax, read a book, catch up on some sleep, take a dip in the pool or simply enjoy the natural sounds of Africa

Later another game walk will have you putting your newfound knowledge to the test in tracking spoor before you return for an evening of more delicious bush cuisine around a candle lit dinner table. Keep your eye on the waterhole for the chance of amazing wildlife interaction.

DAY 4: DEPARTURE DAY

On the final day of your safari you can experience the thrill of an early morning game drive or walk for the last time. After brunch you will be transferred to the airstrip for your flight back to OR Tambo International, for your onward arrangements.
